The Collect of the Day

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The First Reading

Job 42:1-6, 10-17

Job answered the LORD: "I know that you can do all things, and that no purpose of yours can be thwarted. 'Who is this that hides counsel without knowledge?' Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I did not know. 'Hear, and I will speak; I will question you, and you declare to me.' I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees you; therefore I despise myself, and repent in dust and ashes." And the LORD restored the fortunes of Job when he had prayed for his friends; and the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before. Then there came to him all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him before, and they ate bread with him in his house; they showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him; and each of them gave him a piece of money and a gold ring. The LORD blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; and he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand donkeys. He also had seven sons and three daughters. He named the first Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren-happuch. In all the land there were no women so beautiful as Job's daughters; and their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers. After this Job lived for one hundred and forty years, and saw his children, and his children's children, four generations. And Job died, old and full of days.

Psalm 34:1-8, 19-22

- ¹ I will bless the LORD at all times; *
his praise shall ever be in my mouth.
² I will glory in the LORD; *
let the humble hear and rejoice.
³ Proclaim with me the greatness of the LORD; *
let us exalt his Name together.
⁴ I sought the LORD, and he answered me *
and delivered me out of all my terror.
⁵ Look upon him and be radiant, *
and let not your faces be ashamed.

- ⁶ I called in my affliction and the LORD heard me *
and saved me from all my troubles.
- ⁷ The angel of the LORD encompasses those who fear him, *
and he will deliver them.
- ⁸ Taste and see that the LORD is good; *
happy are they who trust in him!
- ¹⁹ Many are the troubles of the righteous, *
but the LORD will deliver him out of them all.
- ²⁰ He will keep safe all his bones; *
not one of them shall be broken.
- ²¹ Evil shall slay the wicked, *
and those who hate the righteous will be punished.
- ²² The LORD ransoms the life of his servants, *
and none will be punished who trust in him.

The Second Reading

Hebrews 7:23-28

The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office; but Jesus holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues forever. Consequently he is able for all time to save those who approach God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them. For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. Unlike the other high priests, he has no need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins, and then for those of the people; this he did once for all when he offered himself. For the law appoints as high priests those who are subject to weakness, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect forever.

The Gospel

Mark 10:46-52

Jesus and his disciples came to Jericho. As he and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaëus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!” Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, “Son of David, have mercy on me!” Jesus stood still and said, “Call him here.” And they called the blind man, saying to him, “Take heart; get up, he is calling you.” So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. Then Jesus said to him, “What do you want me to do for you?” The blind man said to him, “My teacher, let me see again.” Jesus said to him, “Go; your faith has made you well.” Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

Prayers of the People

In gratitude for all we have received, every perfect gift that comes from God above, we gather to offer our intentions, petitions, and thanksgivings to God.

We pray for the Church, founded on the gift of your Word, and for all who gather to worship, praise, and work. Pour your blessings on Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury, Michael, Presiding Bishop, our Bishop Thomas and our clergy and leadership. Pray for the Church.

[silence may be kept for a time]

May we who witness Your saving acts in the world, be ever grateful for Every Perfect Gift.
All: Which comes from God above.

We pray for the world, your greatest Gift to us, and the gift of all Creation. We pray for the welfare of our planet, and we pray for the wise stewardship of our world. Bless and guide our President, our legislative and judicial institutions, and the members of our local government. May they forever care for the people they represent and work for peace and justice. I invite your prayers for our world, either aloud or in the silence of our hearts.

[silence may be kept for a time].

May we who witness your power in the world, be ever grateful for Every Perfect Gift.
All: Which comes from God above.

We pray for the work of our church in the world. As we enter this season of intention and focus on the gifts that we give, inspire us to be generous with everything we are, everything we earn and everything we do. May we who witness the impact of our gifts in our community be grateful for Every Perfect Gift.

All: Which comes from God above.

We pray for our neighbors and all who need or request our prayers. We remember the sick, the lonely, the suffering; especially..... those oppressed domestically or abroad and those in prison; for all who give care and comfort to those in need; for the poor and those who sleep on our streets; for those we name now aloud or in the silence of our hearts.

[silence may be kept for a time].

We pray for those whose needs are known to you alone. May we who witness your healing in the world, be grateful for Every Perfect Gift.

All: Which comes from God above.

We pray for those who have died. May they rest in peace and may light perpetual shine upon them. We pray for those we name aloud or in the silence of our hearts.

[silence may be kept for a time]

May we who witness your eternal love in the world, be grateful for Every Perfect Gift.

All: Which comes from God above.

It is impossible to number the blessings we have received, the many gifts that we have been given and those we share with the world. For what are you thankful today?

[silence may be kept for a time]

May we who witness our gifts at work in the world, be grateful for Every Perfect Gift.

All: Which comes from God above.

Celebrant: With grateful hearts we thank you, Abundant God for hearing the faithful prayers of your people, granting them grace and love and blessings for Every Perfect Gift. Amen.

Birthday Prayer (please change pronouns as necessary)

Watch over thy child, O Lord, as her days increase. Bless and guide her wherever she may be. Strengthen her when she stands, comfort her when discouraged or sorrowful, raise her up if she falls. And in her heart, may thy peace which passes understanding abide all the days of her life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
